

Elder Services of Cape Cod & the Islands:

PROTECTIVE SERVICES CASEWORKER

Protective Services Caseworker is responsible for assessing and investigating reports of neglect, self-neglect, and financial exploitation of persons aged 60 and over. Includes crisis intervention, advocacy and management of service delivery to resolve crisis issues and protect the safety and security needs of the elder within the parameters of the program.

MS in social work, psychology, counseling, human development, nursing or gerontology plus one year of in counseling, casework or case management providing protective or crisis intervention services experience or BS in same fields with at least two years experience. $48,749 annual salary, generous benefits. Send letter/resume to Carole Mega, ESCCI, 68 Route 134, South Dennis, MA 02660 or fax 508-394-3712